DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

In response to applicant's argument that there is no suggestion to combine the references, the examiner recognizes that obviousness can only be established by combining or modifying the teachings of the prior art to produce the claimed invention where there is some teaching, suggestion, or motivation to do so found either in the references themselves or in the knowledge generally available to one of ordinary skill in the art. See In re Fine, 837 F.2d 1071, 5

USPQ2d 1596 (Fed. Cir. 1988)and In re Jones, 958 F.2d 347, 21 USPQ2d 1941 (Fed. Cir. 1992). In this case, Mason discloses the applicant's invention as claimed with the exception of providing one display that is originally visible on the outer surface of the panel whereas Reitz does provide one display that is originally visible on the outer surface of the panel in order to provide, important information or provide entertainment to the patient.

In response to applicant's arguments against the references individually, one cannot show nonobviousness by attacking references individually where the rejections are based on combinations of references. See In re Keller, 642 F.2d 413, 208 USPQ 871 (CCPA 1981); In re Merck & Co., 800 F.2d 1091, 231 USPQ 375 (Fed. Cir. 1986).

In conclusion claims 1 through 11 are still rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mason in view of Reitz as stated in the previous office action dating April 5th, 2005.
